LAWS OF NEWSPAPERS.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.

2. If subscribers wish their papers stopped, publishers may continue to send them until charges are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their papers from the post office or places where they are sent, they are held responsible until they settle their bills and give the notice to discontinue it.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher they are held responsible. Notice should always be given, on removal.

LOCAL ITEMS.

-The dogs are killing Morgan Moore's sheep, near town.

-J. A. Wilson has gone East to purchase his spring and summer stock.

-Tate's Opera House is being erected. W. S. Hornsby's house adjoining is rising from its foundation.

-Mr. Thos. Jones of Fayette county, expects to make his home in Hardeman. We will gladly welcome him.

-Mrs. Colquhoun, nee Miss Sallie Unthank, has been on visit to her mother, Mrs. R. L. Walker.

-Mrs. Ben Wilson, nee Miss Lizzie Wood, made a flying visit to her home this week.

-Senator Barrett is mingling among the citizens of Bolivar. His Nashville stay improved his looks.

-Mr. J. G. Stutz, the actor, has purchased the State of Tennessee to pay for daily instalments.

-We sympathize with Mrs. Paul T. Jones on the death of her sister, Mrs. Gray, at Florence, Ala. Mrs. Jones was with her at the time of the sad event.

-Rev. W. B. Savage, of Lauderdale county, son of the late Rev. Levin Savage, is on a visit to friends in the county.

-Miss Eddie Fentress is back from a visit to Memphis. Miss Dora C. Dunavant, popular society lady of the Bluff City, returned with her.

-Mr. John J. Polk and lady will receive at the Fentress House on Tuesday evening, April 19th. No cards.

-C. H. Anderson and Tom Crawford made a rat raid the other day upon John Polk's crib. Their pet terrier dogs, Napoleon and Gen. Lee, killed 65 rats in a few minutes.

-That school was chartered in the 13th and not in the 14th district. The fact is, every school in the county should be chartered.

-The venerable D. C. Hull, of the Whiteville district, died on Monday. An appropriate memorial will soon appear of this worthy man. Thus one by one the old landmarks pass away.

-Miss McNeil, of LaGrange, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. Griggs Adams.

-Read the beautiful poem in another column entitled "Birth of the Dramatic Art," written by Mr. C. Toler Wolfe, now traveling with the Stutz Dramatic Company.

-We call especial attention to the card of D. W. Parran & Bro., in another column. These young gentlemen are ingenious and skilled artisans and are prepared to fill orders for all kinds of machinery. We commend them to the public.

-We learn that the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church has made arrangements to open an ice cream saloon in the room above Dr. E. D. Moore's drug store, two evenings of each week, beginning with early warm weather. This is greatly needed in Bolivar every year, and we are glad that the ladies will furnish the public this season with such a treat. They have become proverbial for making success and giving satisfaction in everything they undertake. They have already given great aid in reducing the church debt and meeting other demands and still they work! No doubt they will receive liberal patronage.

MARRIED.

HARRISON-CARAHAN—At McNeal's Hall, on the evening of April 8th, 1881, previous to the performance of "Niagara," by the Stutz Dramatic Company, Mr. Willis D. Harrison, of Grenada, Miss., and Miss Annie Carahan, of Cairo, Ills., Rev. W. C. Gray officiating.

$50.00 REWARD.

The citizens of Toons Station offer the above reward for the apprehension and delivery of Gal. Williams, cold, into the hands of the sheriff or jailer of Hardeman county, Tenn. Gal. Williams brutally murdered his wife at Toons Station on Saturday night, April 2, 1881. He is a small sized black negro, about five feet high, weighs from 125 to 140 pounds, has two or three scars on back of neck, is thin lipped, the lower lip hanging a little; has fine voice; is slow of speech. He is a musical composer, and will give you specimens of his own composition at a musical concert which he will hold previous to teaching a class. Save your money which you spend for lessons, and have your children taught by Prof. Graef, who can do what he says. Respectfully, D. W. LEATH.

BIRTH OF THE DRAMATIC ART.

FROM THE PEN OF MR. C. TOLER WOLFE.

A short note and popular play

AMUSEMENTS.

CAMILLE.

This much noted and popular play was presented by the Stutz Star Company last Wednesday night to a large and fashionable audience. Mr. J. G. Stutz, as "Armand Duval," drew forth rounds of applause from the audience, which were justly deserved. Miss E. Alana Stutz, as "Camille Gauthier," Dumas' greatest creation, did a splendid piece of acting, and fully sustained the reputation she has won as an artist. "Mons. Duval," as played by Mr. Wolfe, was a success in every particular, and it is undoubtedly one of the finest actors in his line we have ever seen. Thursday night, "Zingara" was the attraction; Friday night, "Niagara"; Saturday night, "The Two Orphans"; Monday night, "The New Magdalene"; Tuesday night, "Our Boarding House;" and last night "Zingara," followed by the laughable farce, "Family Jars." All of these plays were rendered in a manner that could not be excelled. Miss E. Alana Stutz, Mr. J. G. Stutz, and Mr. C. Toler Wolfe are without a superior in the dramatic art, and the support they have also unusually good. They will always be welcomed here with crowded houses. The entire troupe is a most deserving one, and should meet with the success to which they are so truly entitled.

Laughter.

There is not the remotest corner or little inlet of the minute blood vessels of the human body that does not feel some wavelet from the convulsion occasioned by good hearty laughter. The life principle, or the central man, is shaken to the innermost depths, sending new tides of life and strength to the surface, thus materially tending to insure good health to the persons who indulge therein.

"The blood moves more rapidly and conveys a different impression to all the organs of the body, as it visits them on that particular mystic journey when the man is laughing, from what it does at other times. For this reason every good hearty laugh is which a person indulges lengthens his life, conveying more importance than they now do to the influences of the animal upon the vital forces of the body, will make up their impressions more with reference to the mind and less drugs for them; and will, in so doing, find the best and most effective method of producing the required effect upon the patient.

Will run through from Louisville and New Orleans to New Orleans, via the Ohio River, Mississippi, and the Gulf of Mexico.
